RAILROADS DOING A BIG BUSINESS

More Cars In Actual Service Than In 1917 or 1918

FOR COAL AND GRAIN

Conditions Have Developed Which Have Made it Necessary to Handle Wheat Situation in an Emergency

G. C. Buddin, division superintendent of the Southern Railway today received the following telegram from Walker D. Hines, Director General of Railroads, Washington, D. C.

"The Railroads of the country are now doing a heavier business for the present season of the year than was ever done in the history of the Railroads in normal years and practically as heavy business as was done at this season in 1918, which exceeded all previous years.

"They have more cars in actual service after excluding cars held out of service for repairs than in 1917 or 1918. While the bad order car situation was greatly embarrassed by the extensive strikes among shop men in August, the percentage of bad order cars is not rapidly improving. There was an increase of 52,456 cars in serviceable condition between August 16th and October 4th, 12,110 of this increase were added the one week ending October 4th.

"While the freight business is practically as heavy as this time last year the Railroad Administration in preforming that business is unavoidedly deprived of many exceedingly important aids which it was able to utilize last year, one of these is the zoning of coal which last year compelled consumers to take their coal from nearby mines and thereby greatly increased the efficiency of coal transportation. This advantage has necessarily been lost because the coal zoning was terminated last winter. Another is that at least there was much heavier loading of many important commidities that it has been possible to secure this year, result is that under existing conditions, more cars have to be used for the same amount of traffic than were used last year.

"There are various other important respects in which traffic was controlled in the interest of the war last year so as to get the maximum results out of rail transportation and with return of peace conditions and the resulting resistance of public sentiment upon relense from war time restrictions, these advantages have been lost. The fact that there is still a shortage in rail transportation is due to the condition that the amount of business offering is far in excess of the transportation facilities of the country. This has always been true in this country in times of heavy business in the Autumn months except last year when the matter could be and was controlled with an iron hand with a view solely to war, at the same time Railroad facilities have not expanded to the extent required in the public interest. Even prior to the war, Railroad facilities were not equal to the demands during the war. the addition of new facilities was greatly restricted by scarcity of material and labor. Since the war it has been impossible to enter upon or carry out any extensive program for enlargement of railroad capacity because of the uncertainty as to the status of the Railroad. The Railroad Administration was not provided with the money and therefore could not originate or carry out any such program. The Railroad Companies in view of the uncertainty were unwilling to provide the money, the result is that the railroad facilities of the country are decidedly below what the traffic demands, nevertheless, the maximum traffic is being handled and with less shortage of transportation than manifested itself at times in the pre-war period.

"Particular attention is being paid by the Railroad Administration to the furnishing of necessary equipment for the transportation of coal and of grain. It was decided early in September that in order to meet the coal requirements of the country, it would be necessary for the Railroads to move a minimum of 11,000,000 tons of bituminous coal a week, for the week ending Sept. 13th, 11,046,000 tons were transported, for week ending Sept. 20th, 11,248,000 tons were transported and for week ending Sept 27th Railroad Administration estimates that approximately 11,575,0000 tons were transported.

"Conditions have developed which have made it necessary to handle the wheat situation in an emergency way. This situation has been complicated by the fact that many of the elevators are full and it has been impracticable to move additional wheat to points where the elevators are full because to do so would cause large numbers of railroad cars to be filled with grain which would not be disposed of at destination and this would result in practically taking such cars out of the transportation service and using them for stoning and depriving the public generally of cars which are badly needed for business of every sort. The Railroad Administration is following this matter very vigorously in consultation with the grain corporation and Director General will consider the matter personally at a meeting of interested Railroad Officials, Representatives of the Grain Corporation, and others to be held in Chicago this week.

"As to the situation in Texas where the wheat conditions are particularly acute because the crop is approximately 25,000,000 bushels larger than last year, and where there is a scarcity of local storage facilities, arrangements are being made through the grain corporations for the grain corporations for the sending of additional cargo vessels to Galveston and arrangements have already been made for increasing the number of permits for carloads of wheat into Galveston from 50 to 100 per day. Particular, efforts are being made to move wheat which is on the ground and thus exposed to the weather."

MAN SHOT BY NEGRO

Mayor Closes all Saloons in Chester, Pa., When Angry Crowd Threatens Race Riot

Chester, Pa., Oct. 14.—One man was shot and killed and four other men and a woman were seriously wounded here Saturday by a negro who had been ejected from a saloon for disorderly conduct. One of the injured men is said to be dying. The victims are all white.

After the shooting large crowds gathered on the streets and open threats of violence were heard. Fearing a race riot, Mayor McDowell issued a proclamation closing all the saloons and called upon the sheriff for assistance. A large number of deputy sheriffs were sworn in and aided the police in patrolling the streets Saturday night, which at a late hour were crowded with groups of whites and blacks in an angry mood.

William Neely, aged 27, who did the shooting, was rushed to Media and placed in jail. An armed guard was stationed around the building.

TYPELESS MAGAZINE

80- Page Issue Printed From Photograph Plates

New York, Oct. 18.—Elimination of typesetting, one of costliest operations of magazine production, by the use of plates made by photographing the original typewritten copy, has been accomplished in the October 18 issue of the Literary Digest, consisting of 80 pages. This radical innovation, which was brought about by the printers' strike in this city, leads the publishers to suggest that "it is possible in this age of marvels that the whole future of magazine production may be revolutionized by the elimination of typesetting.

The make-up of the magazine is no way changed, the only difference being that the style is that used on typewriters and is uniform in all the reading matter throughout the number. The right-hand side of each column is irregular as in ordinary typewritten copy. Each page is in effect a photographic copy of the original article as written on the typewriter.

JEWISH RELIEF CAMPAIGN IS OPEN

Twenty-Five Solicitors Today Engaged in Task of Collecting

WEATHER NO BARRIER

Canvassers Report Success—Campaign Will be Continued Until October 24—City's Allotment $5,000.

Weather conditions proved no barrier to the solicitors who today started out soliciting funds for the Jewish Relief Campaign.

About twenty-five reported early this morning at the hooms of the Chamber of Commerce and were assigned certain territory. The canvassers report having met with considerable success on the first day of the drive and feel confident that should the contributions continue to come in as they have during the first day the allotment for Alexandria, which is $5,000, soon will be reached.

Each day the solicitors will continue the canvass until the entire city is canvassed. The campaign will end October 24.

It is urged by the committee that persons not called on by the committee send their contributions to J. T. Preston, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Palestine Orphans Benefit

Jewish War Orphans in Palestine received $75,000 for food, clothing and general relief during September alone, from contributions to the American Jewish Relief Committee and other Jewish organizations, according to a report of the Joint Distribution Committee which handles the Jewish Relief Funds This. sum was in addition to the $70,000 contributed monthly for general relief in Palestine during July, August and September.

Refugee Jews In Orient

Countless numbers of Jewish refugees fleeing from Russia to America, who got as far as Japan and could proceed no further for lack of funds, are being cared for by the Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society in Yokohama; and each month a part of the money raised by the American Jewish Relief Committee and similar Jewish organizations and distributed through the Joint Distribution Committee, go the toah institution. During June, July, August and September financial aid to the extent of $5,000 monthly was sent to the "Home in Yokohama."

Ship Kosher Meat to Poland

Religious scruples of the starving Jews in war-stricken Poland were taken into consideration by the Joint Distribution Committee which handles the funds raised in this country by the American Jewish Relief Committee. Included among the heavy shipments during September for Polish relief, was "kosher" beef, valued at $286,424.14. This constituted a part of the cargo of food that was carried by the steamer "Ashburn."

The unrest among the peasants is increasing and bands of armed peasants are roaming the rural districts.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son and brother, Amos Entwisle, who left us one year ago today, October 14, 1918.

We are parting, one by one,
But God's will must be done,
It is sweet to know we will meet again
Where parting and sorrow cannot come.

By his father, Frank Entwisle.

Our thoughts are always wandering
To the grave so far away
Where our dear brother is lying
In his peaceful and lonely grave.
We cannot forget you, brother,
While in this world we stay;
God only knows our feeling
Since you passed away.

245-1p By his sisters and brothers.

THE Y. M. C. A. MOVEMENT

(Communicated)

Alexandria for the last three years has been enjoying a time of unprecedented prosperity. Prosperity which is ours still, and which is being stabilized and will abide.

There have come to us great manufacturing and industrial plants, and many lesser activities; these have stimulated the whole commercial and financial life of our city.

We reojice in this, but it has also laid upon the community an increased responsibility. While we appreciate these commercial and financial gains, we can but feel the responsibility of our very largely increased population. And after all, the chief asset of any community is its people, and character determines the value of this asset.

The most promising feature of our growth is this prospect of the establishment of the Y. M. C. A. work in our city. For long years our best citizens have known the great advantage of this organization to any commupity, and have ardently desired a Y. M. C. A., for our own young people. This desire and hope seem now about to be realized.

It is exceedingly gratifying and encouraging to see the business men of our city, through the Chamber of Commerce, endorsing a movement for the moral and physical betterment of the young manhood and womanhood of our community.

We may not be able to realize fully our ideal of a finely equipped building, but we can have the full benefit of this trained and tried institution.

Under the skilled leadership of an experienced and skilled Y. M. C. A. worker, the wealth of young life of our city can be so developed and trained as to make it the greatest force for righteousness and usefulness in the civic life of our growing city.

This movement deserves the endorsement and co-operation not only of the Chamber of Commerce, but of our citizens, without regard to creed or condition. Every citizen who has boys and girls of his own, or who has the good of the community at heart, or who looks for better things for old Alexandria in the future should get back of this movement with all the earnestness and enthusiasm that is in him, and make this day of opportunity the time when our dreams shall come to pass, and transmute the things hoped for into substance and reality.

We are all agreed that this is a thing we need; let us unitedly go after it. We can put it over if we will.

UNION GIRLS CARRY HOD

Two Silk Workers Refuse to Return to Mill After Losing Strike

Wilkes-Barre, Pa. Oct. 14.—Union principles triumphed over a desire to return to work in the cases of Esther Devlin and Alice Troski, members of the Silk Workers' Union, who have been on strike for four weeks. The Misses Devlin and Troski went to work yesterday morning as hod carriers on a road paving contract.

In applying for jobs, the girls made clear that they needed the money, but could not reconcile themselves to returning to the silk mills. The contractor advised them that the only vacancies he could offer were those that were attached to the carrying of bricks to the bricklayers. The girls accepted the jobs, shouldered their hods and kept bravely at their task all day.

FLEE MOSCOW

CLEMENCEAU TO RETIRE

Will Leave Cabinet After Approaching Elections

Paris, Oct. 14.—Premier Georges Clemenceau has declared to a number of deputies that he has made up his mind to leave the cabinet after the coming elections.

The Premier, speaking on the controversy which has arisen over the governments plan to hold elections for the chamber of deputies in advance of those for the Senate, is quoted as saying he knew fresh onslaughts were being planned against him with the object of bringing on a debate as to the cabinet's general policy.

M. Clemenceau said such a debate would be useless and that he would refuse to be made a party to it, adding he would enter into no explanations as to the future policy of the cabinet, which would necessarily go out of office with him.

JURY UNABLE TO AGREE

AN APPEAL TO MOTHERS

U. D. C. Would Honor Sons of Confederate Veterans in the World War

This appeal is made to the mothers and fathers of our soldiers and sailors for but one reason.

Our men, home from overseas and camp duty, are tired of war. Tired of marching, speech making, medals. Just to "get back" seems good enough.

There were long weary months in camp, and over there for our fighters. There were long, anxious heartbreaking months for the women over here.

Now, we, the women over here are asking a favor of the parents of these men.

The Daughters of the Confederacy, in the thirteen Southern States, have been anxious to enroll the names of the lineal descendants of Confederate Soldiers and Sailors who served in the late war. The list is very incomplete. Many names, of which the descendancy as we know, are not on this list. It has been decided, therefore, to put aside this registration, and ask the mother and father of every soldier and sailor, whose father, grandfather or great grandfather served in the Confederate Army, to send the name of the soldier and his crednetials to the historian of Alexandria Chapter.

The state sending the most complete list is to receive a prize. Virginia is not working for a prize. She is working that years from now, when the World War veterans meet in convention, anywhere in Dixie land, they will be the proud possessors of their Confederate Cross.

If no one had one, you would not crave one for your boy. But what will posterity think of one descendant with a cross, or medal, another without.

It seems out of the way now, with the heroes safely home, and everything vivid to all of us, but fifteen, fifty years hence, will we feel the same?

SIX SKELETONS IN TRUNK

Cumberland Authorities Entertain Blackhand Theory

Cumbreland, Md., Oct. 14.—The finding of six skeletons in a trunk of a type used by emigrants from southern Europe on the city garbage dump yesterday, caused the authorities to entertain a theory that there may have been a wholesale blackhand slaughter. Some flesh remained on the bones.

Some of the officers held to the idea that several persons may have been secretly murdered at different times and their bodies concealed, later to be collected, by persons fearing discovery, who decided to get rid of the remains by the trunk route. Others think the bodies may have been cast away by experimenting medical students.

SUGAR FAMINE

Dieting Interfered With by Shortage of Supply Available

Washington, Oct. 14.—Practically all local hospitals are feeling the sugar shortage acutely and considerable inconvenience in dieting has resulted, it was learned last night. Its effects have not reached a serious stage, however, it was stated at the more prominent institutions.

Efforts by authorities at Casualty Hospital to obtain a sufficient supply of the commodity have failed successively, it was announced. The present small supply has not been replenished for several days.

About the same condition prevails at Emergency. Sibley, Garfield, Columbia, and other hospitals Most of the institutions have enough sugar on hand to last for some time but unless quantities are available soon the situation will be come critical.

LABOR PARTY FACES TEST

Question of Offering Arbitration in Steel Strike Will Come Before Conference Today

Washington, Oct. 14.—It is expected that tomorrow will be a critical day for the Industrial Conference, but there is little or no warrant for the rumors that the conference is likely to go to pieces. The members are returning to Washington after spending the week end at various nearby cities.

The question of offering arbitration in the steel strike is expected to overshadow all other business when the conference renews its session today. The members of the body will meet this issue after having had several days for reflection instead of being compelled to decide the question abruptly, as would have been necessary if the vote had been taken last week.

While the outcome of the steel strike situation is wholly in doubt, it is regarded as probable that a compromise of some sort will be effected. This compromise may take the form of a proposal to investigate the strike instead of to immediately attempt arbitration. Little credence was given in Washington today to the assertions made last Saturday that if the vote on the matter of arbitrating is unfavorable to labor its representatives would abandon the conference.

It is pointed out that neither labor nor capital could afford to take such a step, as by so doing either faction would immediately create prejudice against itself on the part of the American people. The conference barely has been organized and started its work, and it is admitted that any group which withdraws because it cannot have its own way at the first is almost certain to damage its cause in the eyes of the public.

THRILLING RESCUE

Heroic Act of Washington Firemen Yesterday Afternoon

The thrilling rescue of Miss Bessie Repp, of the American Forestry Service, by Sergt. O. A. Becker and Private F. Newmann, of No. 3 Truck Company, in view of hundreds of breathless spectators, furnished a sensational climax to the blaze of unknown origin in the Maryland Building, 1408 H street, yesterday afternoon.

Overcome by the dense smoke, Miss Repp was found unconscious on the second floor by the firemen, who carried her up to the sixth floor and then down the steep ladder to the street below. The weight of the three persons caused the frail ladder to sway perilously and as the men halted in their descent occasionally to shift their burden or to secure a better hold, the crowds below gasped in anxiety.

Becker led the way down the tottering ladder, clutching Miss Repp's limbs with his right arm, steadying himself with the other. Newmann followed directly after him, supporting the victim's body with both arms, bracing himself against the ladder-rungs to keep from falling. The slightest misstep or loss of balance would have resulted in the possible death or injury of all three persons, but the careful work of the rescuers was rewarded when they reached the bottom rung in safety.

Reaching the ground, Miss Repp was restored to consciousness by first aid and Becker and Newmann lashed back into the building in search of other victims.

CALOMEL LOSING OUT IN SOUTH

Mr. Dodson, the 'Liver Tone' Man, Responsible for Change for the Better

Every druggist in town has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it." Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle doesn't cost very much but if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, just ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day.

How Much Profit Do You Pay Us?

The United States Department of Agriculture informs us that you as an average American Citizen, eat about one hundred and eighty-two pounds of meat (181.83 lbs.) in a year.

Based on these figures, if you had purchased all of your meat foods from us, Swift & Company would have profited to the extent of 48½ cents during the first eight months of our present fiscal year.

In that eight months we averaged to make two-fifths of a cent on each pound of meat and all other products sold.

This profit you paid us equals 6 cents a month—or just about one street car fare.

More than 30,000 shareholders looking to us as trustees of their invested money, had to be paid a reasonable return out of your 6 cents a month. Volume alone made this possible.

Now figure for yourself how Government interference in the operations of the packing business is going to reduce your meat bill!

Let us send you a Swift "Dollar." It will interest you. Address Swift & Company, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Ill.

THE SHADOW OVER THE WHITE HOUSE

The apparently uncertain condition of President Wilson at this time is causing untold uneasiness over the entire country. This cloud is not confined to the United States; it has spread over the civilized portion of the old world too. The masterly manner in which he has directed diplomacy at the most critical time in the history of the planet has long since been acknowledged, and to be derived of the benefits of his energetic mind at this time necessarily causes the most sincere regret.

Bulletins recently issued from the sick chamber are not as assuring as could be wished.

About the same time information was being given out at the White House yesterday morning that President Wilson personally will give attention to the prohibition legislation and the amendments to the Food Control act, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, at the instance of Senator John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, was giving the first official recognition of the President's illness by deciding not to request further peace treaty information of the Executive at this time.

Of the two developments, that at the Senate probably was the more significant, followed as it was by more or less general discussion on both sides of the Capitol of measures for calling in the Vice President to function as President during the period of Mr. Wilson's disability.

The possibility that Mr. Marshall's services will yet be required is commented upon more widely and more definitely than at any time since the President returned to Washington.

As a matter of fact, the members of the Senate and House refuse to take the White House bulletins at full face value. They are proceeding upon the more or less fixed notion that Mr. Wilson's condition is such that the general term "nervous exhaustion" does not quite cover the case, and while they are not taking seriously the more or less wild rumors with which the air is filled they are showing an impatience to know the exact truth about the distinguished patient if it so happens that the exact truth is not contained in the official reports.

The Providence R. I., Journal, which printed so many "inside" stories about Germany's operations in the war, will publish what it believes from authentic sources to be the facts concerning President Wilson's condition. The Journal says he is suffering from cerebral hemorrhage with complete asphasia of mental processes and partial physical paralysis. The Journal adds that there is no hope of his being able to perform the functions of his office now or at any time in future.

THE CASE OF TSINGTAO

China has no rights in Tsingtao for the next 78 years. Twenty-one years ago China gave Germany a lease of the district for 99 years. The fortunes of war transferred that lease from Germany to Japan. The title of Japan for the next 78 years is complete. It is as good as our own title to the spoils of war, California, Arizona, New Mexico, Porto Rico and the Phillippines

The Philadelphia, Record asks the question, "Who drove the Germans out of Tsingtao? The Japanese. Then why should the Japanese be deprived of what their arms won? The German lease was perfectly valid. China might have taken advantage of the war to denounce the lease and recover Tsingtao, but it did nothing of the sort. If it had any rights it slept on them. Will Senator Norris or any one else explain why Japan should recover Tsingtao for China? Why another nation should help China when it would not help itself, and why one of the victorious nations should be required to surrender what its arms had won?

The peace conference met to dictate terms to the vanquished nations and distribute the territories taken from them. Several new States have been created out of the latter, and the colonies are to be administered by mandatories of the League. It was no duty of the peace conference to take Tuns, or Algeria, or Madagascar, from France and give it to some other Power, or erect a native Government therein. It was no duty of the conference to divest Great Brtain of Gibraltar, or Cyprus, or Egypt, or erect an Irish Republic. It was no duty or prerogative of the conference to take away from the United States territories it had won in war. The district taken by Japan having been lawfully leased to Germany, and taken from Germany as spoils of war, the peace conference had nothing to do except to recognize Japan's right of conquest."

WHITHER ARE WE DRIFTING?

Supreme Court Justice Bartow S. Weeks, and Assistant District Attorney Alexander I. Rorke, of New York City, last night slept under the protection of detectives and policemen, as the result of the finding of anarchistic circulars, which attack the officials and call on the workers of the steel and "every other industry" to arm themselves. A special guard has been placed around public buildings, churches and the homes of prominent capitalists and public officials.

Such are conditions confronting the principal city in this land of the free and the home of the brave in the twentieth century.

We can, in a measure, assign the reason for the murderous spirit which is animating so many in our country at this time. It is undoubtedly the result of the education of the present generation. A large percentage have been taught to "speak evil of dignitaries" from the cradle and that, too, by parents who should realize the truth of the saying that like fathers like children.

It is hard to make most people understand that the father of a family, so long as he walks in wisdom's ways, is as God to those dependent upon him. The awful responsibility of rearing his little ones to become law-abiding citizens rests upon him. But should his children hear him always denouncing the powers that be, impeaching the honesty and integrity of judges and court officials generally, his children will naturally grow up despisers of law and order and eventually become menaces to society in their day and generation.

We often hear harsh criticisms of those who are called upon to administer justice in our own city. Such utterances come mostly from people who have no realization of the principles of law, and with whom it is useless to reason. They are despisers of those in authority on general principles, and their example is inherited by their offspring.

They will not realize their responsibility now, but the time cometh which will burn as an oven and when despisers of law and order will reap what they have sown.

AN APT PARALLEL

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler discussed "The Real Labor Problem" in an address before the Institute of Arts and Sciences of Columbia University in New York yesterday. Among other things he said:

"The history of the beginnings of the steel strike read strangely like the beginnings of the European war. The ultimatums of Messrs. Fitzpatrick and Foster might well have been written by Count Berchtold, Chancellor Bethmann-Hollweg or Minister von Jagow. The published statements associated with the names of aech of these gentlemen are alike in that they make no appeal whatsoever to right or to justice, but simply give notice of peremptory demands and announce that when a fixed limit of time expires force will be used to support the demands.

"When the Austrian Government presented its ultimatum to Serbia on July 25, 1914, the world was shocked. But the same world did not appear to realize that the ultimatums of Fitzpatrick and Foster had in them far more seeds of danger both to America and to Europe, to liberty and to the rights of the weak, as well as the wage-workers themselves, than did the Austrian ultimatum to Serbia.

"The ultimautms issued by Fitzpatrick and Foster were not a sincere and necessary step toward improving the condition of wage workers in the steel industry, but were part of a new, carefully thought out, and thoroughly well-planned attack on the principles upon which the American people have rested their government, their civilization and their life. They were a declaration of war for power, and the beginning of an attempt to compel the people and the government to enter upon a strange and wholly unknown public policy without deliberation or debate and under threat of industrial war and economic destruction.

"The very principles for which we have been fighting on so huge a scale with military weapons are now at stake in the contest to be waged with economic fores and with ideas."

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 117 of article 8 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Resolved by the senate and the house of delegates (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of senators and members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity to the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and seventeen, which is in the words and figures following, to-wit:

Section 117. General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house; and except also in the case of cities having more than fifty thousand inhabitants, as hereinafter provided, that each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this amendment a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended so as to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

Notwithstanding, however, anything in this article contained the general assembly may, by general law or by special act (passed as prescribed in article four of this Constitution), depart in any respect (except as otherwise in this section expressly provided) from the form of organization and government prescribed by this article for cities and towns, and may provide, from time to time, for the various cities and towns of the Commonwealth such form or forms of municipal government as the general assembly may deem best; but no form or forms of government authorized by the second paragraph of this section shall become operative except as to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of its qualified electors at an election to be held as may be prescribed therefor by law. All the limitations on the powers of the councils of cities and towns imposed by this article shall apply in like manner to the principal legislative authority under any form of government which may be authorized hereunder. The term "council" as used in sections one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and twenty-seven of this Constitution shall be construed to include the body which, under any form of municipal government, shall be vested with the principal legislative authority of such municipality.

The general assembly, for the purpose of this article, may classify cities according to their population, but the maximum population prescribed for any class shall exceed the minimum population for the same class by at least ten thousand. The general assembly, at the request, made in manner which may be prescribed by law, of any city having a population of over fifty thousand inhabitants, may grant a special form of government for such city.

Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurer and city sergeants.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 117. (a) General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this Constitution a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

(b) The general assembly may, by general law or by special act, organize in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and govern the organization and government of cities and towns without regard to, and unaffected by, any of the provisions of this article, except the first of section one hundred and seventy-four, section one hundred and seventy-five, the provisions of section one hundred and seventy-six requiring the election of mayor and the power of veto, one hundred and seventy-six, one hundred and twenty-seven and one hundred and twenty-eight of this article, and those mentioned in subsection (a) of this section. The form, powers and duties of such cities and towns shall include the body vested with the principal legislative authority of the city or town, and all ordinances enacted and all duties imposed by such body shall have the same force and effect as now in all cases provided or adopted in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-three of this article. But such organization and government shall apply only to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of those qualified voters of any such city or town voting in an election to be held for the purpose, as may be provided by law.

(c) The general assembly, at the request of any city or town made in manner provided by law, may grant to it any special form of organization and government authorized by sub-section (b) of this section, and subject to all of the provisions of that sub-section, except that it shall not be necessary for such city or town to thereafter adopt the same.

(d) Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurers and city sergeants.

(e) Any form of organization and government authorized by any provision of this section which may have been adopted heretofore by any city or town pursuant to any act of the general assembly enacted before such provision became effective, and which is now in operation, is hereby declared legal and valid ab initio, and shall have the same force and effect as if it had been authorized by this Constitution at the time of its adoption.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 133 of article 9 of the Constitution of Virginia.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (the majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to section one hundred and thirty-three, article nine, of the Constitution of Virginia, be and is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly at the first regular session held after the next general election of members of the house of delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-three of article nine, which is in the following words:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be not more than three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

Men and women may serve as school trustees in said districts, and in cities and in towns forming separate school districts.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing) That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and nihety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and eighty-four, which is in the following words:

Section 184. No debt shall be contracted by the State except to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war. ALBANIANS KILL ITALIANS

Revolt Extremely Violent.—High Command Raze Villages as Reprisal

Paris, Oct. 14.—"Bloody fighting has broken out in Albania between the natives and the Italian occupying troops," says La Liberte's correspondent at Annamasse, on the France-Italian border.

"Reports reaching Annamasse say the Italian losses are heavy. The conflict is the culmination of long and careful preparation by the Albanians, who resolved to throw out the occupying forces.

"The revolt assumed a character of extreme violence. Overnight the whole country rose in arms, and the mountains are disgorging hundreds of armed bands of ferocious bandits, who, not content with holding up the Italian supply truains, are massacreing isolated detachments of scouts and foragers, and have, in several instances, descended in considerable force against organized entrenched camps.

"Unable to catch the real insurgents, the Italian high command in Albania, by way of reprisal, has razed entire villages to the ground, the inhabitants of which, thirsting for revenge, have fled into the mountains and taken up arms against Italy, swelling the insurgent ranks by the thousands."

POLICE BILL PASSES

Measure Also Provides Against Men Affiliating With A. F. of L.

After devoting the entire afternoon to discussion of the District of Columbia, bill providing for increases in salary to members of the Metropolitan police force, the House late yesterday passed the measure by a vote of 228 to 8.

Reresentative Gould, of New York, chairman of the District of Columbia sub-committee, which drafted the bill, declared this action by Congress in repudiating affiliation with A. F. of L., should serve as "a note of warning and advice," to state and municipal authorities, "who are faced with a similar menace and may not, perhaps, appreciate it at this time."

The anti-strike section was strongly supported by both Republicans and Democrats, the only opposition coming from members actively affiliated with labor organizations.

The Washington police union only a few days ago withdrew their affiliation with the American Federation of Labor, after notice had been served by the District Commissioners that failure to take action would result in the discharge of all members who remained in the union.

KILLED WITH RAZOR

Man Severs Sister's Head and Then Cuts Own Throat Before Niece

Ocean Grove, N. J., Oct. 14.— In a vain effort to save her mother from being murdered by her uncle in their home last night, seventeen-year old Christine Hartman was badly cut about the face and arms and will be scarred for life.

When she saw her uncle at the conclusion of a violent quarrel with her mother, draw a razor and lunge threw herself between them. She tried to fight off her uncle, but was thrown across the room, and before she was able to return to the attack, saw her mother thrown across a couch and her head nearly severed from her body by her uncle, who later ended his own life by cutting his throat with the same razor.

The uncle, Joseph Mackey, was a widower, fifty-six-years of age. For several months he had been trying to persuade his sister-in-law, Mrs. Bertha Hartman, forty-three, also a widow, to take him to board with her. Mackey seemed to have been drinking.

Elk brought here several years ago have multiplied so fast and have proved so destructive that farmers are complaining. There is no bag limit.

NEGRO SERVANT SCARCE

Washington Crowded With Colored High Wage Seekers

Washington, Oct. 14.—In spite of the fact that the Capital City is supposed to have a negro population at present estimated to be something like 150,000, thousands of families are without servants. The number of white servants here is comparatively small.

A large percentage of the negroes are inefficient. Their cooking is something dreadful to think about. They have flocked to Washington from many of the Southern States, having been attracted by the big wages they heard they would be certain to receive. When they get considerable money in their clothes the average one is disposed to quit work as long as the cash lasts.

In many families negro women who have been employed for years suddenly make up their minds to quit. They simply say they are tired of working. Others who decide to give up their places tell their employers they wish to go to Philadelphia, Pittsburgh or some city farther North where they have heard wages are much higher than in Washington.

"Gets-It" Peels Your Corns Right Off

Two Drops Will Do It Without Fuss or Trouble. Never Fails.

There's only one way to get rid of a corn, and that is to peel it off as you would a banana skin. There is only one corn remover in all the world that does it that way, and that

There's No Corn "Gets-It" Will Not 'Get.' is "Gets-It." It is because of this fact that "Gets-It" is today the biggest seller among corn-removers on this planet. It means the end of "corn-fiddling." For hard corns, soft corns, very old corns, young corns, corns between the toes and calluses, it means a quick, certain finish. "Gets-It" is applied in 2 or 3 seconds. All you need is 2 or 3 drops. As easy to do as signing your name. It does away forever with tape, plasters, bandages, knives, corn-diggers, scissors, files and blood-bringing razors. Ease your corn-pains, be corn-free at last.

"Gets-It," the only sure, guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Prepd. by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

PROBING STEEL STRIKE

Senator Kenyon Says Americanization of Workers is First Duty Before Congress

Washington, Oct. 14.—Americanization of foreigners should be an immediate effort of Congress through legislation, declared Senator Kenyon, of Iowa, chairman of the Senate Labor Committee which returned yesterday from an investigation of the steel strike in the Pittsburgh district.

Asserting that about half of the steel workers are of foreign birth and cannot read, write or speak English, Senator Kenyon said one of the first aims of Congress as a result of the committee's inquiry should be Americanization legislation. The Senator declined to discuss other ideas gained from the committee investigation which he said would be continued in the near future, possibly in other strike districts.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 14.—Steel companies with general offices in this city yesterday reported that from their standpoint conditions as a result of the steel strike, which today entered upon its fourth week, continued to improve. There was no general return of strikers reported, but without exception company officials where plants are in operation said there were increased numbers of men in the mills yesterday. The entire Pittsburgh strike district was quiet.

Youngstown, Ohio, Oct. 14.—Considerable turbulence was reported throughout the valley yesterday morning as the steel mills are resuming operations in greater volume. Crowds of strikers about each plant stoned strikebreakers and many arrests were made.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Three steel plants, closed since the strike of steel workers three weeks ago, reopened yesterday with approximately 50 per cent of a normal working force.

RECLASSIFICATION FOLK ARE BASHFUL—WITH A REASON

Prizes for the most bashful men and women in Washington would go to the ninety staff workers of the joint congressional commission on reclassification of salaries in the District, government employes declare, if such prizes were being awarded.

The reason for this bashfulness on the part of the staff members, who are engaged in various jobs in connection with the reclassification of 107,000 federal workers here, has at last leaked out.

Staff workers desire to remain incognito and have done a pretty fair job along that line so far, for the simple reason that they don't want to be pestered by government employes calling them up and asking for special consideration.—Washington Star.

THEATRES

RICHMOND—Virginia Pearson

Once upon a time, so history relates, there was an age when a man went forth and bifted the fair damsel of his choice on the head and dragged her home to his cave. It was a sure, if not very gentle, way of getting a wife!

Catherine Kimberly, 1919, A. D. edition, was so-up-to-date she was almost ahead of the styles. John Henry Jackson was a thoroughly modern young man, himself, but he was wise enough to know that Old Methods work best on New Feminists.

Everyone agreed that Catherine was utterly 'impossible." She appropriated the Tank Corps' slogan, "Treat 'em rough," and lived up to it. Then along came John Henry, a husky male creature (and how she hated men!) and told her—even before they'd been properly introduced—that he was going to marry her. (Abominable institution, marriage, interfering with the "Freedm of Woman!")

You'll find fun galore interspersed with some real dramatic moments in Virginia Pearson's newest picture, "Impossible Catherine," which is showing at the Richmond tonight. As the hoydenish Catherine, Miss Pearson gives us a characterization never before attempted by this popular and versatile star.

This photoplay comes to the Richmond before being shown in Washington.

GRAND THEATRE

Corinne Griffith, beautiful and talented Vitagraph star, who has the stellar role in "The Unknown Quantity," which will be seen in the Grand Theatre tonight, firmly believes she was born to become a famous screen artist, for when she was a schoolgirl in New Orleans she often dreamed of coming to the silent drama. Vitagraph gave her the opportunity, and she never has left the Vitagraph banner.

"The Unknown Quantity," in which she has one of her most appealing roles, is from the O. Henry short story of the same name. The picture was filmed under the direction of Thomas R. Mills, and in the supporting cast are Huntley Gordon, H. Davenport, Jack Ridgeway, Frederick Buckley and Jack McLean Also Eddie Polo.

INGOMAR—Marguerite Clark

Marguerite Clark's new photoplay, "Three Men and a Girl," which is being shown at the Ingomar theatre tonight is one of the best of her new repertoire. It is a charming picture based upon a famous Broadway success and affords Miss Clark a delightful role of which she makes the most. The support is most praiseworthy, the leading man being Richard Barthelmess, a talented screen player.

VICIOUS STRIKES LABOR

Hines Denounces Unauthorized Walkouts and Says They Menace Cause

Unauthorized strikes are "creating the basis for the argument that it is nonsense to recognize labor organizations or try to deal with them, because the organizations will not obey their own rules and, therefore, make the orderly handling of business impossible," Rail Director Hines yesterday wrote B. M. Jewell, acting president of the Railway Employes' Department of the American Federation of Labor.

"Why I Put Up With Rats for Years." Writes N. Windsor, Farmer.

"Years ago I bought some rat poison, which nearly killed our fine watch dog. It so scared us that we suffered a long time with rats until my neighbor told me about RAT-SNAP. That's the sure rat killer and a safe one." Three sizes 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by R. E. Knight and Son. Alexandria; Mankin's Store, Falls Church.

CHURCHES MAY SECEDE

Detroit, Oct. 14.—Hint of secession if efforts to revise the Book of Common Prayer continue was heard yesterday at the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

If a break should come in the Episcopal Church, owing to the revision of the prayer book some of the Southern dioceses might join the movement, a Virginia deputy said.

Proposal for the Concordat with Congregational Church, by which pastors of that faith would receive ordination from Episcopal bishops, is being opposed strongly, it was said.

REMEMBER—You can buy a choice lot in Rosemont for only $15 down and $8 per month, thereafter until purchase price is paid. No interest or taxes for two years. F. C. Goodnow Company, 624 King street. 245-tf

GOMPERS DENOUNCES STRIKE

New York, Oct. 14.—The longshoremen's strike was denounced as a violation of "the fundamental principles of the American Federation of Labor" by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in a letter received yesterday by T. V. O'Connor, president of the International Longshoremen's Union. The strike was unauthorized by the union and Mr. O'Connor has consistently endeavored to induce the men to return to work.
